Hi Jeanne and Rob,

It's been almost 2 years since i adopted Sebastian and I was thinking about adding another lil' one to my family. I was wondering what kittens you currently have or will have coming up. Oh btw sebastian is amazing! I never have met a cat who was like him. I get compliments all the time from my family and friends. I posted a few pics on facebook of him. He looks so much like zeus. Take care and hope to hear from you soon!

Thank you,
