Good Afternoon,

I just wanted to update on Hayden and Lilly. They are doing great very lovable. I just got a new camera so pics will be coming soon. Hayden is going in Friday to get fixed (that was the earliest i could get). He is very vocal which we love. he meows mom :). Lilly goes back to get fixed the 1st week of July. She doesn't meow as much, and she likes her space during the day, but loves snuggling at night with the family and sleeps with Hayden in there play tree. You weren't kidding the love the feathers, and they also love play springs. We'll keep you updated.
