Hi Jeanne,

I just wanted to thank you again for our little snow boy! Maui has just started to get comfortable with the bedroom and is getting curious about the rest of the house. Our cat Carson has accepted his little brother and I think they are going to be great pals. Maui wanted to follow Carson out to the rest of the house yesterday :) He's very lovey, playful and sweet and seems very healthy! We are both so happy! When I can get a good picture I'll send you one.

Thanks,

Sue
