Hi Jeanne and Rob,

I just wanted to give you an update, Gibbs is doing fantastic! For the first few days he hid, we slowly introduced him to the whole apartment, but by the weekend he is all over the place. He loves to steal hair ties from the bathroom :) He is a very happy guy that loves dog food, and Lou is enjoying cat food now. Gibbs is his name but he has no clue, he carries his green spring thing around all over, and loves to chase his tail. He's not a big fan of being picked up or cuddling yet but when ever your in the kitchen he is right there inspecting, especially loves to climb in the fridge.

Thank you again for everything! I will highly recommend you to anyone searching for the purfect kitty! Maybe one day in the future we may contact you for a feline friend for Gibbs :) Happy Hoildays!!

Sincerely,
Gibbs new happy family
