

Letters from Friends (12/21/08)

Hey I wanted to thank you for the adorable c.d. you sent us. We all watched it a few times . Also, I entered my cats in the virtual cat show on catchannel.com they are in categories longest stretch, biggest ears, cutest, and best mustache and best coat . They need votes to win so I thought you guys might want to go vote for them. My friend jay loves my cats and he is allergic to cats but mine don't bother him. I was talking to his brother and his brother wants to buy him one for his birthday. We were wondering if you were having any litters in the spring time. It looked as if you breed snow bengals. We might want to get jay a snow Bengal.

thanks

kimberly
