

Letters from Friends (12/27/08)

Jeannie,

Thanks so much for the DVD! We loved seeing all the pictures of your beautiful babies! My plans to get another Bengal evaporated this summer, all my extra time (and money) went into helping my Mom in her fight against breast cancer. The good news is that my 13 year old is currently saving her babysitting money, and asking for all holiday gifts from relatives, to go toward her "buy me my own cat" fund. Karissa hopes with graduation gifts to be able to afford her own baby by this summer. We saw some beautiful marbles in your litters... Karissa is hoping for a silver or a snow. Pet quality markings of course, can you keep her in mind if you have any upcoming litters please? How are their temperaments and vocals? Are they as sweet and as quiet as my baby?

As you can see from our Xmas card, Mara is still the bell of the ball over here. She has got to be the most spoiled cat on the planet hahaha! I've attached some recent photos for you! Have a very happy new year! Angela and Brett Lambrix... and Mara of course!
