Subj: Hello from Morgan Garner

Hello Rob and Jeanne, I hope you are well. I just wanted to give you guys an update. We did decide to call the cat Theodore, though it's usually "Teddy." Phoebe took a couple weeks to decide that she was ok with him, but he was great, and put up with a lot of flak from her without complaining. Even though she got really hissy, he never was put off, and kept plugging away at her. Now, they sleep together often, and as I write, they are chasing each other up and down the hall.

Amy and I are extremely happy with Teddy, he has a wonderful personality, and he's a lot of fun. He's already broken his fair share of things, and I've spent a lot of time rigging booby traps to keep him out of my plants...a test of my ingenuity if I ever saw one.

Have a great day.

-Morgan
